MEN'S CENTRAL JAIL

On January 28, 2008, at approximately 1100 hours, Deputy Arciga handcuffed K-10 Inmate Parra concluding his shower. Deputy Arciga held Inmate Parra by the arm. Inmate Parra pulled away from Deputy Arciga and ran down the row. Inmate Parra slipped one hand from the handcuffs. Inmate Parra then wrapped the free handcuff into his hand fashioning a set of metal knuckles. Inmate Parra then threatened Deputy Arciga. Deputy Arciga exited the row and ordered Inmate Parra to approach him for re-handcuffing. Inmate Parra refused. Men's Central Jail Sergeant Octave was notified of the incident and responded.

Inmate Parra and several other inmates lit papers and blankets on fire and threw them on the row. The inmates then broke apart porcelain sinks in their cells and started throwing pieces. Inmate Parra picked up the porcelain pieces and threw them at the deputies who were trying to extinguish the flames.

An extraction team entered the row to apprehend Inmate Parra, who resisted their efforts. The following force was reportedly used upon Inmate Parra during his extraction from the row:

Deputy Cano held Inmate Parra's leg and punched his leg. He jabbed Inmate Parra's left rib cage four times with his baton. He applied the Total Appendage Restraint Procedure on Inmate Parra at the conclusion of the incident.

Deputy [redacted] fired one 40mm round at Inmate Parra and missed. She fired two contact shots on Inmate Parra's left arm with the X-26 TASER.

Deputy [redacted] fired three to five rounds from the pepper ball gun.

Deputy [redacted] fired five to six contact shots on Inmate Parra's legs with the X-26 TASER.

Deputy [redacted] used a takedown on Inmate Parra and struck his head five to six times with his right fist.

Deputy [redacted] struck Inmate Parra's back four to five times with a baton.

Deputy Roman struck Inmate Parra's body four times with his baton.

Deputy [redacted] pushed Inmate Parra against the metal cell gate, causing Inmate Parra to strike the back of his head. He kneed Inmate Parra's face and struck his face five to six times with his fist. He assisted in handcuffing and heard Inmate Parra's left arm pop. Deputy [redacted] was struck on his right arm by the porcelain thrown. He was treated for a three- to four-inch laceration.

Deputy Guerrero struck Inmate Parra's legs with a baton approximately five times.

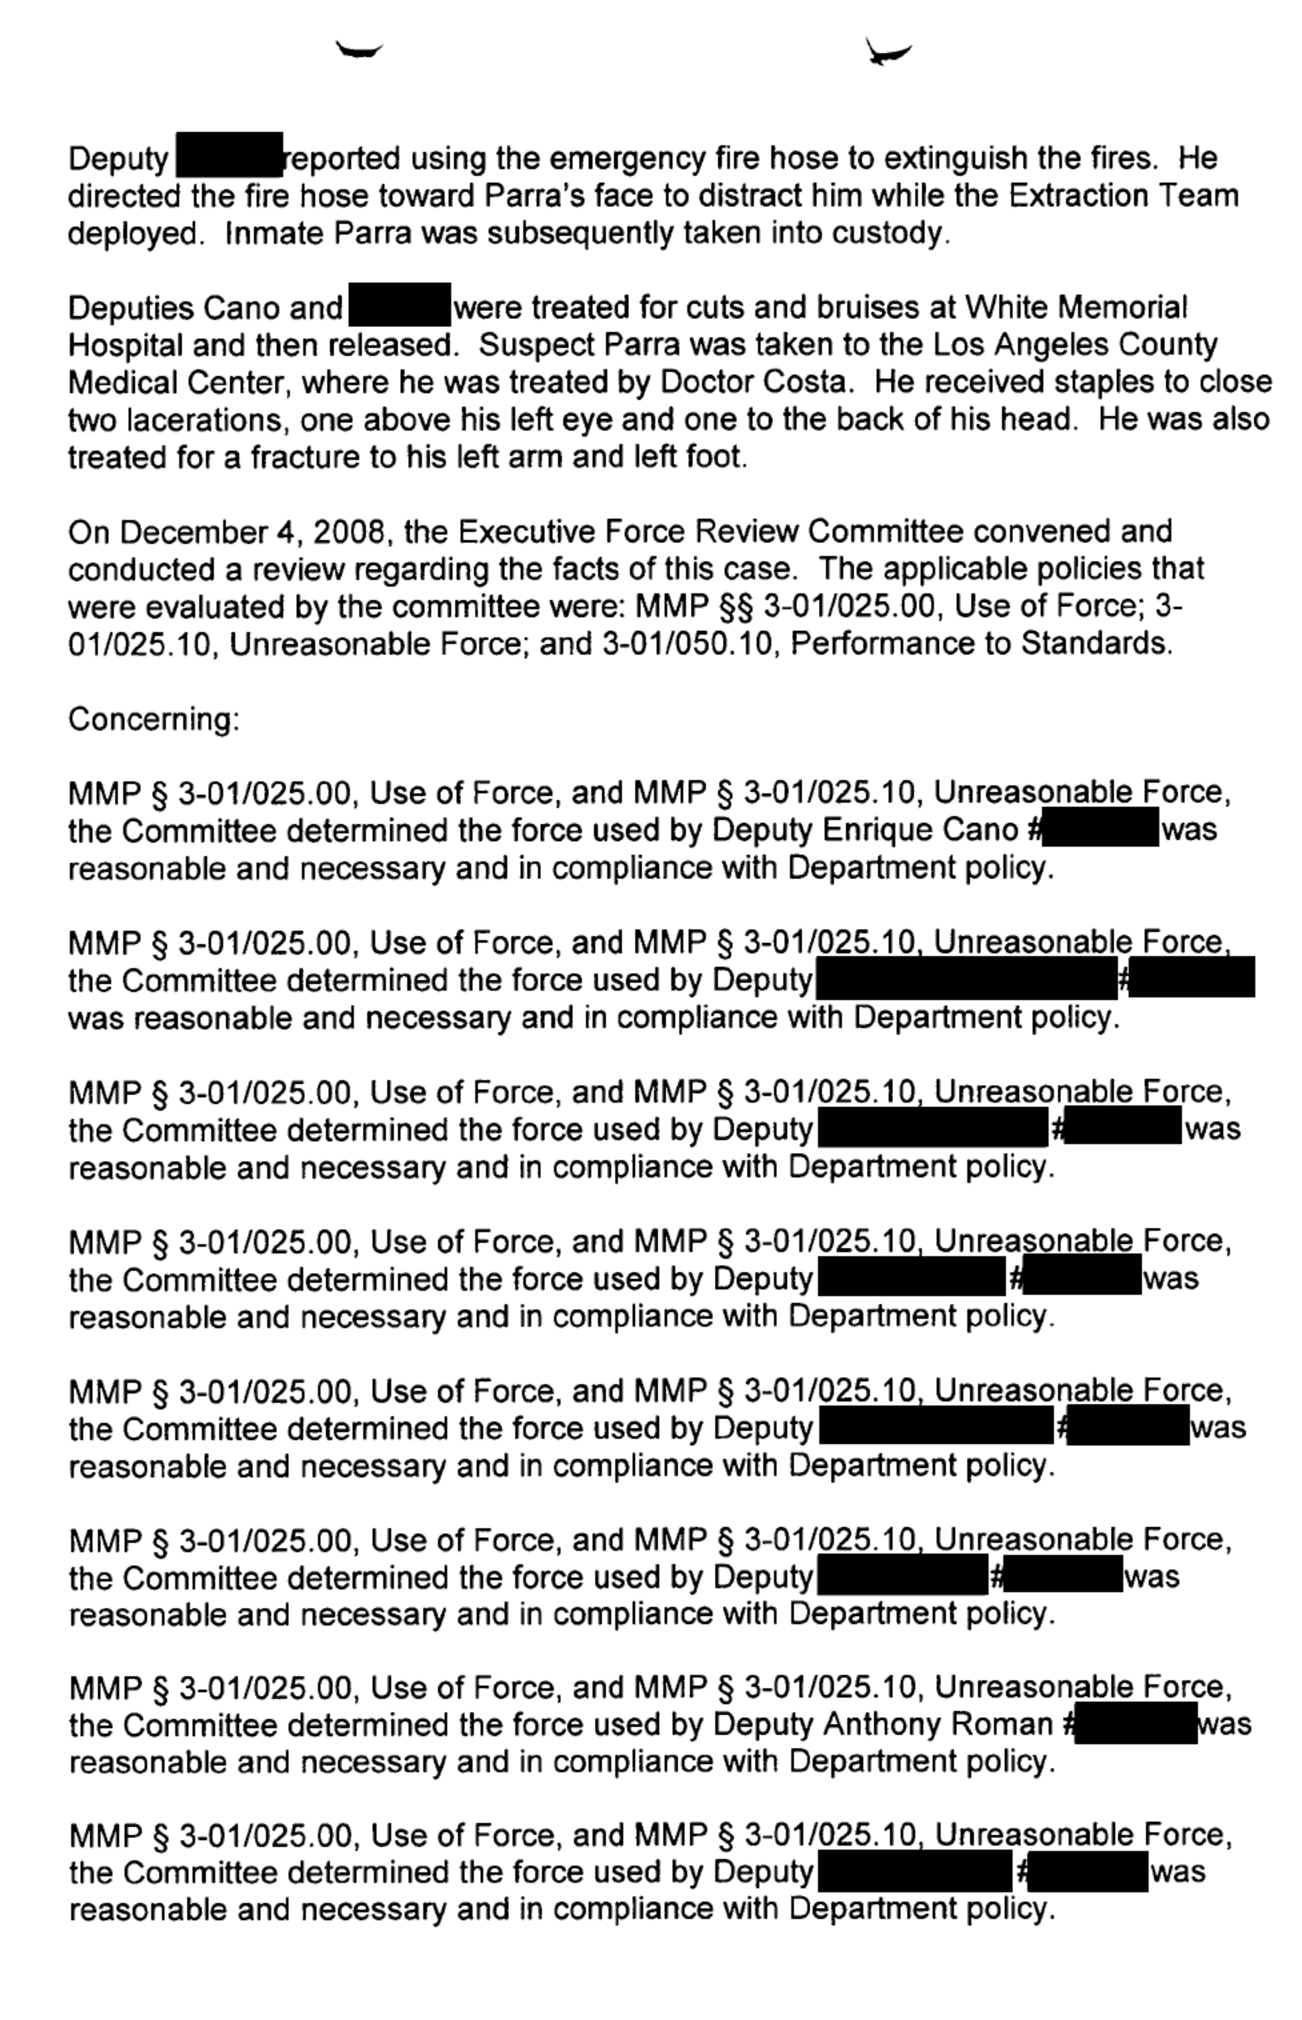

Deputy David Rodriguez struck Inmate Parra's rib cage five to six times with a baton. He struck him four to five times on the left thigh with his left fist. He assisted with handcuffing.

Deputy [redacted] assisted in the takedown of Inmate Parra. He held Inmate Parra's legs. He struck Inmate Parra's lower torso several times with his right fist. He placed his left knee on Parra's right leg while Parra was being handcuffed.

Deputy [redacted] placed his right knee on Inmate Parra's neck while handcuffing.

Deputy [redacted] punched Inmate Parra's rib cage three times.

Deputy [redacted] was the shield deputy. He blocked debris thrown at the deputies.

Deputy [redacted]eported using the emergency fire hose to extinguish the fires. He directed the fire hose toward Parra's face to distract him while the Extraction Team deployed. Inmate Parra was subsequently taken into custody.

Deputies Cano and [redacted] were treated for cuts and bruises at White Memorial Hospital and then released. Suspect Parra was taken to the Los Angeles County Medical Center, where he was treated by Doctor Costa. He received staples to close two lacerations, one above his left eye and one to the back of his head. He was also treated for a fracture to his left arm and left foot.

INVESTIGATIVE NARRATIVE
USE OF FORCE
MEN'S CENTRAL JAIL

TYPE: DIRECTED / SIGNIFICANT FORCE

I.A.B. File Number: FO2213809
URN: 008-00133-5100-057

DATE / DAY / TIME: January 28, 2008 / Monday / 1030 hours

LOCATION: 441 Bauchet Street, Los Angeles, Ca.

On January 28, 2008, at approximately 1100 hours, Men's Central Jail deputies were involved in a use of force in Module 3300, B-row. The force incident resulted in Inmate Parra sustaining a fractured left arm and a fractured left foot.

At approximately 1030 hours, K-10 Inmate Parra requested a shower while housed in his cell (3300 B-12). Deputy Jose Arciga handcuffed Inmate Parra and escorted him to the B-Row shower. Approximately 30 minutes later Inmate Parra concluded his shower, dried off and got back into his clothes. Deputy Arciga handcuffed Inmate Parra and prepared to move him back to his cell. While holding Inmate Parra by the arm, Deputy Arciga turned to hand the razor Inmate Parra had used to shave back to Module Officer Robert Lim. As he did so, Inmate Parra quickly pulled away from Deputy Arciga and ran down the row. While running down the row, Inmate Parra slipped one hand from the handcuffs. He then quickly turned and wrapped the free handcuff into his hand fashioning a set of metal knuckles. He then threatened Deputy Arciga and began to approach him. Deputy Arciga exited the row and ordered Inmate Parra to approach for re-handcuffing. Inmate Parra refused. Men's Central Jail Supervision was then notified of the incident and responded.

The inmates in their cells then became riled and started throwing items from their cells. Several inmates lit papers and blankets on fire in their cells. Inmate Parra also set fire to several items which had been thrown onto the row by his fellow inmates. At that time the other inmates began to break apart the sinks inside the cells and started throwing pieces of porcelain onto the row. Inmate Parra picked up the pieces of the porcelain and threw them at the deputies who were attempting to extinguish the flames from the other side of the row gate.

Negotiations with Inmate Parra continued while an Emergency Response Team was summoned. At their arrival negotiations continued, but all attempts to gain Inmate Parra's compliance failed and the other inmates continued to vandalize their cells. At that time it was decided to send an extraction team onto the row to apprehend Inmate Parra.

An extraction team entered the row to apprehend Inmate Parra who resisted their efforts. The following force was reportedly used upon Inmate Parra during his extraction from the row.

Deputy [redacted] reported using the emergency fire hose to attempt to extinguish the fires Inmate Parra had started. He directed the fire hose toward Parra's face in an attempt to distract him while the ERT made deployment. Inmate Parra was subsequently taken into custody.

Deputies Cano and [redacted] were transported to White Memorial Hospital where they were treated for cuts and bruises and subsequently released. Suspect Parra was taken to the Los Angeles County Medical Center, where he was treated by Staff Physician Doctor Costa. He received staples to close two lacerations. INVOLVED EMPLOYEE STATEMENTS:

Sergeant Carmichael Octave, #[redacted] was interviewed on January 28, 2008, by Sergeant's Jack Ramirez and Frank Quichocho of the Internal Affairs Bureau. The interview took place at Men's Central Jail and was digitally recorded.

Sergeant Octave said he was sitting in his office when he was contacted by Deputy Arciga. Deputy Arciga told him an Inmate (Peter Parra) who was on Module 3300 Baker row , refused to "lock it down." He told Sergeant Octave the inmate was currently running loose on Baker row. Sergeant Octave said the inmates housed in that module are identified as K-10's (K-10's are classified based on their propensity for violence toward both staff and/or other inmates). He said these inmates are normally handcuffed when being moved. He said Inmate Parra was allowed to shower for approximately 30 minutes. He said Inmate Parra called Deputy Arciga and told him he was ready to go back to his cell.

Sergeant Octave said at that point Deputy Arciga followed protocol by having Inmate Parra face away from him. He said Deputy Arciga told Inmate Parra to interlace his fingers, with his hands behind his back, and Deputy Arciga then handcuffed him while Inmate Parra was still inside the shower cell. He said at that point Deputy Arciga told the module deputy (Lim) to "rack the gate." He said as the gate opened, Deputy Arciga's attention was drawn away from Inmate Parra (Deputy Arciga was handing the razor Inmate Parra had used during his shower back to Deputy Lim). Sergeant Octave said when Deputy Arciga looked back at Inmate Parra, he noticed that Inmate Parra had slipped one of his handcuffs. He said Inmate Parra then took a fighting stance and began to challenge Deputy Arciga to fight. Sergeant Octave said Deputy Arciga made the decision to exit the row leaving Inmate Parra loose on the row. He said the other inmates were still locked in their cells. Sergeant Octave said he then notified Lieutenant Seno regarding the situation.

Sergeant Octave said he responded to module 3300, Baker row, with the intention of getting Inmate Parra to comply with the deputy's orders and to have him escorted back to his cell. Sergeant Octave said he attempted to communicate with Inmate Parra and asked him what it would take to get him to comply and to be handcuffed and taken back to his cell (This was being video taped). Sergeant Octave said Inmate Parra started yelling and getting the other inmates riled up. He said Inmate Parra started cussing at him (using the F word) and saying "screw you." He noticed Inmate Parra had gotten a mattress and was using it as a shield in anticipation of a cell extraction. Sergeant Octave said Inmate Parra also began to throw a white substance onto the ground in front of the gate in order to make the floor slippery in the event they, (deputy personnel) needed to go onto the row.

Sergeant Octave said he attempted to get Inmate Parra to comply several times, but Inmate Parra continued to refuse his commands, (commands such as directing Parra to comply and return back to his cell). He said at one point, Inmate Parra obtained a lighter from another inmate and began lighting items, such as sheets and bed rolls, on fire. He said Inmate Parra started approximately three different fires. Sergeant Octave said at this point the incident was becoming hazardous to the other inmates and staff in the facility, so he activated the Emergency Response Team. Sergeant Octave said the fire department was also notified and responded. Sergeant Octave said all the force subsequently used was directed by him. He said at the conclusion of the incident, the deputies involved in the extraction reported the individual force they used directly to him.

Sergeant Octave said Inmate Parra threw pieces of porcelain at the extraction team as the team made entry. He said Inmate Parra would pass the handcuffs, which he had removed from his wrists, to different inmates so they could use the handcuffs to break their sinks and use the broken pieces of porcelain to throw at the deputies.

I.A.B. Note: Refer to Sergeant Octave's supplementary report and transcribed copy of his interview in this case book.

Deputy Enrique Cano, [redacted] was interviewed by Sergeants Jack Ramirez and Carlos Flores of Internal affairs Bureau, on April 24, 2008. The interview took place at Men's Central Jail. Deputy Cano said on January 28, 2008, he was assigned as the "capture deputy." He said he was part of the Green Extraction Team. He said he was told Inmate Parra had incited a riot and barricaded himself on the row. He said he and other members of the extraction team were directed by Sergeant Octave to extract Inmate Parra off of the 3300 B row. Deputy Cano said as they made entry onto the row, Inmate Parra and other inmates proceeded to throw large pieces of porcelain from sinks they had broken as well as unknown liquids, and human feces. Deputy Cano said Inmate Parra held a shield which he had fashioned from mattresses in front of him as the arrest team proceeded to take him, (Parra) to the ground. He said he grabbed Parra's left leg as he kicked at the extraction team. Deputy Cano said he kicked Inmate Parra in the left leg in order to get Parra to stop kicking him and the other team members.

Deputy Cano said the team was successful in handcuffing Parra. Deputy Cano said as they started to escort Parra off the row, Parra shoved a deputy up against the wall. He said Parra was taken to the ground but Parra continued to kick. Deputy Cano said he jabbed Parra with his straight baton four times in the rib cage. Deputy Cano said he then hobbled Inmate Parra's legs so he would not kick . Deputy Cano said he then attached the hobble to the handcuffs (Tarped). He said Inmate Parra was carried off the row and taken to the hospital for treatment. Deputy Cano said he was struck on the right arm by a piece of porcelain thrown by Inmate Parra. He said he was transported to White Memorial Hospital where he was treated for a laceration which required thirteen sutures to close. Deputy Cano said he reported the force he used to Sergeant Octave.

She said she deployed the taser and gave Parra two contact shots to his left arm. She said the contact shots were apparently effective and caused Parra to allow his hands to be handcuffed. Deputy [redacted] said she reported the force she used to Sergeant Octave.

DEPARTMENT WITNESS STATEMENTS:

Deputy Jose Arciga, #[redacted] said on January 28, 2008, he was conducting shower program on 3300, B row. He said he contacted Inmate Parra who was inside of the 3300 shower cell. Deputy Arciga said he handcuffed Parra to the rear to escort him back to his assigned cell upon completion of his shower time.

Deputy Arciga said 3300 B-row houses K-10 inmates. He said K-10 inmates are always handcuffed to the rear prior to exiting their cells due to their high propensity for violence against staff and other inmates. He said K-10 inmates are segregated and housed in single man cells, and escorted by deputy personnel at all times. He said he requested that module Deputy Lim open the shower gate so he could escort Inmate Parra to his assigned cell.

Deputy Arciga said Parra exited the shower area quickly, not allowing him to gain control and escort him. He said he told Parra to stop so he could gain control of him, but he refused. Deputy Arciga said he attempted to quickly catch up to Parra but he (Parra) immediately slipped his right hand out of the handcuff. He said Parra spun around holding both of his hands unsecured, and clenched, in a fighting position.

Deputy Arciga said he saw that Parra was holding the serrated end of the handcuff in his left hand while the other end of the handcuff was still attached to his left wrist. Deputy Arciga said Inmate Parra told him "Do you wanna go? "Do you think this shower shit is funny."

Deputy Arciga said that he feared he was going to be assaulted by Parra, so he immediately exited the row and closed the security gate. He said as he closed the security gate, Parra started running up and down the row yelling "Puro Sur Trece." This caused other inmates on the row to start yelling in unison, "Puro Sur Trece."

He said he was assisting Deputy Arciga by opening the shower gate (cell #1) from module 3300, B-row to rehouse Inmate Parra who was assigned to cell #12. He said once Parra was handcuffed by Deputy Arciga, he ordered Deputy Lim to open the shower gate and Parra's cell gate.

Deputy Lim said as he opened the gate, he saw Deputy Arciga immediately exit the row and shut the gate from B-row. He said he immediately looked onto B-row and saw Parra with the handcuffs wrapped around his left hand. He said he saw Parra with both hands in a fighting stance.
